

LOCAL NEWS.

The CHARTER CONVENTION holds an adjourned meeting this evening at 4 o'clock, at the City Hall. It is expected that the report of the Committee on the charter will be submitted, and acted upon at this meeting.

CONFERENCE.—The Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will commence its session at the Foundry Church in this city on tomorrow morning, at 10 o'clock. A number of the ministers have already arrived in the city.

FLYING ARTILLERY.—Major Ringgold's troop of United States Light Artillery were exercised in their various manœuvres on yesterday morning in the Capitol yard, before a large concourse of members of Congress, citizens, &c. In the afternoon they were also drilled on the mall south of the President's house. Their admirable discipline, celerity of movement, and rapidity of firing, seemed to elicit general commendation, and reflected the highest credit upon their commander and other officers. The concussion of the firing in the forenoon at the Capitol played sad havoc with the windows on the northeast front.

THE MUD OF PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE.

[Suggested on reading "Bachelor Bob's" lines on the "Dust on Pennsylvania Avenue." BY "CHIPS."

When the rain from the clouds comes pattering down,
In drops as big
As a justice's wig,
Take care of your crown;
The dust then is laid
By the cooling cascade,
And the lungs, free from stuffing,
Take of pure air, enough
Like steam-boilers, puffing
They bleat—and they bleat, till they think
That the nose is a-snuffing the scent of a pink.
But that's no mishap at all—
Look from the Cap-i-tol,
There's nothing but pudding away up to Fuller's;
And the horses are pullers,
Thro' mud and thro' mire
They pull spoke and tire,
And jostle and rub,
"Clay up to the hub."
The swine are in glory—like the old money hunter,
They dig and they delve "according to grunter;"
Like milk and mush,
Looks the ocean of slush;
And then the splash,
When cabmen dash
Along the flood
Of quivering mud!
The jaded and half-founder'd horses
Are used to such spatters and crosses,
They bless
Congress
And the hat-hearted Jehus, their bosses.
The ladies—God bless them, dear creatures,
With smiles on their features,
Come out
And pout
Just like a bud
Stuck in the mud,
When they behold around, about,
A sheet of mire,
Than ankle higher,
With "oh!" and "ah!" they pass the flag,
Their garment in the pudding drags,
And when the gutters they skip over,
Their under robes they cannot cover;
Silk stockings tight
And patties white—
And—for the rest, no matter,
All get their share of spatter,
Thanks to the penny-saving members,
Who pay for lighting party embers,
But, who have not a cent to spare
To pave the street or shield the fair,
A mighty people we!
Great—glorious—and free!
The wise men of the nation,
Spend more by one oration,
On who's to be the man,
Henry Clay or little Van,
Than would pay
To pave the way,
Or have-a-new
Grading of the Avenue.

TWENTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION.

MONDAY, MARCH 11, 1844.

SENATE.

Owing to the crash of windows in the Senate Chamber by the cannonading of Major Ringgold's troop of artillery near by, the session was confined to the morning hour.

Mr. JOHNSON presented resolutions of the Louisiana Legislature in reference to the removal of obstacles in the navigation of the river La Fourche.

Messrs. HUNTINGTON and DAYTON severally presented memorials (drawn up under misapprehension) for the repeal of the existing treaty with Texas.

FALLS OF ST. MARY.

Mr. WOODBRIDGE presented four separate petitions asking for a canal around the Falls of St. Mary.

Mr. PORTER, on leave, introduced a bill to authorize the opening of this canal at the outlet of Lake Superior.

PATENTS.

Mr. ATHERTON presented a memorial from some engineers and inventors, asking for a change in the patent laws.

Mr. MOREHEAD moved an adjournment.

Mr. BUCHANAN will not object to the adjournment if members on that side of the Chamber could not remain with comfort, but he was very sorry to be obliged to defer speaking when he was all ready for it. He gave notice that he should address the Senate to-morrow.

The Senate adjourned.
[NOTE.—Mr. Buchanan was to speak on the Oregon question, and, as the day was fine, the galleries displayed an unusual array of feathers and velvet. Mr. B. is much appreciated by the ladies.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

RHODE ISLAND.

Mr. CRANSTON, of R. I., was permitted, on leave of the House, to make explanations of certain remarks of his on Friday and Saturday last, and to reply to certain accusations of Mr. Rathbun prejudicial to himself and his State.

This subject disposed of, some personal explanations were made by several of the Ohio delegation in reference to a resolution concerning a Senate bill providing for a removal of the circuit court from Cincinnati to Columbus, Ohio.

RESOLUTIONS FROM STATES.

The call of States for resolutions was commenced with South Carolina, where it was last dropped.

MEETING OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. COBB, of Ga., submitted a resolution that the meeting of the House hereafter should be at 11 o'clock, instead of 12. On this Mr. H. called for the previous question.

At first no quorum voted, but finally the resolution was adopted by 127 to 23.

SLAVERY.

Mr. BLACK, of Ga., submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That Congress has no constitutional power to abolish slavery in the Territories or in the District of Columbia, or to receive any memorial which prays for the accomplishment of that purpose, either directly or indirectly.

Mr. B. moved the previous question.

Mr. CAVE JOHNSON moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. ADAMS inquired of the Speaker, for the information of the House, whether the resolution did not fall within the provisions of the 21st rule.

The SPEAKER, after a moment's hesitation, decided that it did not.

Mr. JOHNSON then withdrew his motion to lay on the table, which was immediately renewed by another member, and the yeas and nays called. It was laid on the table by a vote of 96 to 61.

[This vote was of a mixed character.]

DISTRICT ELECTIONS.

Mr. DAVIS submitted a joint resolution recommending to the State Legislatures so to amend the several State constitutions as to provide for elections by districts. The resolution was laid on the table, under objection.

THE TARIFF.

Mr. BOYD, of Kentucky, moved that 20,000 extra copies of the report and bill of the Committee of Ways and Means, referring to the tariff, be printed for the use of the House. Mr. B. moved the previous question.

Mr. HARDIN desired that the resolution might be read to embrace the minority report; but the previous question cut off all amendments, motions, and debate. The resolution was adopted by yeas 109, nays 51.

THE RULES.

Mr. CAVE JOHNSON, of Tennessee, submitted a resolution to the effect that a majority might, at any time, have power to go in and out of Committee of the Whole, and to discharge that committee from the consideration of bills.

This resolution was discussed, upon a point of order, by Messrs. Adams, Johnson, Schenck, and others.

Mr. SAUNDERS, of North Carolina, called for a division of the resolution, and said he was in favor of the first part, but not of the 2d.

The resolution upon going into committee at any time was carried, by yeas 112, nays 75.

The second branch of the resolution, to discharge the Committee of the Whole from bills by a majority vote was also adopted: Yeas 93, nays 73.

GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT.

Mr. MILTON BROWN presented a resolution instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to report to the House a communication made to them by General Scott; adopted.

DUFF GREEN.

Mr. SCHENCK submitted a resolution that the President inform the House, if not incompatible with the public interest, whether Mr. Duff Green has been appointed or recognized in any capacity as an agent of this Government in Great Britain; and, if so, under what authority. Objection being made—

Mr. S. moved a suspension of the rules, and the yeas and nays were called, and were, 85 to 75—so the resolution was lost.

GENERAL JACKSON.

A Joint Resolution was submitted by some one, whom we did not notice, for the employment of an artist to paint the battle of New Orleans and select his own point of time, during the battle, for representation. As no Whig objected, Mr. CAVE JOHNSON was obliged to, and the resolution lies over.

THE TARIFF AGAIN.

Mr. TILDEN, of Ohio, submitted a resolution, that the Clerk of the House be directed to withhold, for the space of ten days, if so long be necessary, the report of the majority of the Committee of Ways and Means upon the tariff, in order that the minority report may be printed in connexion therewith. Mr. T. moved the previous question, which was not seconded, therefore no viva voce vote could be had. Under these circumstances, to get an open vote, Mr. FISH, of New York, moved to lay the resolution on the table, and called for the yeas and nays, which were ordered, and stood thus: Yeas 93, nays 70. The resolution lies over.

THE TWENTY-FIRST AND TWENTY-FIFTH RULE.

Mr. GIDDINGS presented a resolution, in conformity with previous notice, that this abolition rule should be so amended as not to exclude abolition petitions and memorials asking for the repeal of any existing acts of Congress. The previous question was called, but not seconded, and, under the rules, the subject goes over for debate. Some conversation followed on points of order, and an effort was made to have the resolution laid on the table, but the motion was not in order.

THE TARIFF YET AGAIN.

A resolution was submitted by Mr. MOORE, of Ohio, that the tariff bill be taken up on the 27th of this month and considered from day to day, until it is disposed of. The previous question was called. A motion to lay the resolution on the table was followed by a call of the yeas and nays, and the vote was 90 to 86; so the House refused to lay the resolution on the table. The vote for seconding the previous question was taken by tellers, and was decided in the negative by 75 to 73.

Some conversation followed between the Speaker and Mr. Hardin, the latter contending that he vociferated his objections several times, and seemed to think that if the Speaker did not hear, he ought to have heard.

After a considerable skirmishing in votes, the House adjourned.

SOUTH AMERICAN NATIVE SOAP, EL XABON LIQUIDO.—It gives a rich glossy appearance to the Hair! It is a superior wash for the Teeth! and removes from Silks, Woollens, and other cloths, Oil, Grease, Stains, and the brown rusty look, (common to silk,) &c., &c.

In confirmation of the above, we are enabled to present the two following letters:

"VALPARAISO, Jan. 20, 1838.
"Sir: The 'Xabon Liquido' is applied by the natives and foreigners of South America, in cleansing woollen cloths, and the ladies use it to wash their hair. In both instances it is of very general use and greatly esteemed. It imparts an appearance of freshness and glossiness in the former case, that cloth does not possess even originally, and in the latter produces a brightness and richness that the hair no where else exhibits, and I should judge from its beautiful growth also promotes its increase. It will be a valuable article to introduce among your countrymen for the purposes above stated, and must, when fully tested, become one of universal merit. I appreciate its great usefulness from actual experience of its benefits."

"Very respectfully, your obedient servant,"
T. L.

"BALTIMORE, Nov. 9, 1838.
"Sir: Agreeable to your request I would cheerfully certify that the 'South American Soap' is universal used by the natives for cleansing the hair, skin, &c. Also for washing clothes. They value it mostly on account of its giving to the hair a silky appearance. Both my family and self use it constantly as a delightful wash for the hair and skin."

"Yours truly
STEPHEN SMITH."

The following certificate from some of our most distinguished Dentists, will amply establish its superiority as a tooth wash:

"Having been made acquainted with the analysis of the South American Native Soap, El Xabon Liquido, we can with safety, recommend it as an excellent detergent wash for the teeth and mouth. It contains nothing, so far as ascertained, that can injure the teeth; but, on the contrary, by uniting with an acid that is almost constantly being generated in the mouth, may be regarded as tending to their preservation."

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—Richardson's Celebrated American Panacea, for the cure of the following diseases, to wit: Salt rheums, scrofula, ulcerated scrofula, bronchitis, fever sores, king's evil, erysipelas—inflammatory and chronic rheumatism, piles, bilis, scurvy, chronic sore eyes, blotches or pimples on the face, scald head, and all cutaneous diseases, eruptions of the skin, or pains or ulcers arising from an injudicious use of mercury or an impure state of the blood.

This medicine is purely vegetable matter, and warranted free from any ingredient detrimental to health. Its curative properties consists in its producing a sure and effectual alternative of the whole system almost imperceptibly to the patient. It has not failed in a single case of effecting a permanent cure of the above named diseases, when the party using it would follow the directions and continue its use for a sufficient length of time. Experience has proved that in slight eruptions of the skin, or for piles, or erysipelas one small bottle has effected a cure, while in obstinate cases it will take from two to four large bottles. It has been found entire y efficacious in producing regularity of the menses in females, and has been taken with great benefit in pulmonary diseases.

In addition to its great efficacy in eradicating disease, it is the cheapest of the kind ever offered to the public, as the extract is brought into so small a compass that a small bottle will last as a suit from two to fourteen days a large bottle about four weeks; while of the others, more than double in cost of the article, will be taken in the same time. It has been fully tested by many of the first physicians in the State of New York, and now used very extensively in their practice, and by the pronounced the most efficacious compound ever discovered from vegetable matter.

Persons while in its use, should abstain from all stimulating drinks. Strong beer, mustard and highly seasoned food.

DIRECTIONS.
For a child one year old, a small tea-spoon full.—
Two years old, a large tea-spoon full. From six to ten years old, two tea-spoons full. From ten to fifteen years, two thirds of a table-spoon full, and for an adult from one to two table-spoons as it may be found best to act upon the system; one table-spoon is quite enough in almost all cases, to be taken before eating in the morning.

It can be procured of the General Agent, THOMAS G. TALMAGE,
No. 20 Pine street, opposite the Custom House, New York.
And of
Z. D. GILMAN,
Druggist, Penn. avenue, agent for the District.
A great number of letters and certificates may be seen by application to the agents, of the astonishing cures by its use.
